The Conservation Center for Art & Historic Artifacts (CCAHA) is a nonprofit conservation facility specializing in the treatment of works on paper, photographs, and books through conservation and state-of-the-art digital imaging services. Founded in 1977, CCAHA serves nonprofit cultural institutions, private individuals, and collecting organizations. CCAHA's preservation services staff present educational programs, conduct preservation assessments, and develop emergency preparedness plans. CCAHA also offers fellowships, fundraising support, and disaster assistance.

CCAHA's services include: conservation treatment of paper-based artifacts; photograph conservation; book conservation; conservation framing; preservation assessments; collection surveys; item-specific surveys; educational programs; assistance in emergency preparedness, response, and disaster recovery; and grant proposal development.

Member institutions receive:

- One $125.00 credit towards a condition report, treatment proposal, and estimate per year or one hour of free consultation (on-site within a 50-mile radius of Philadelphia, travel cost not included)
- Reduced rates for CCAHA national conferences and LYRISIS programming
- Access to CCAHA's disaster services, including on-site freezer and emergency conservation assistance
- A 10% discount on regularly-priced products from Hollinger Metal Edge, Inc., a leader in quality archival materials
- Access to CCAHA's on-site library of preservation and conservation reference materials and technical bulletins
- Subscription to Art-i-facts, CCAHA's printed newsletter featuring conservation treatment stories
